

2012 ACHIEVEMENT AWARDS

Valley Speedway will recognize drivers in classes based on the following criteria:

Rookie of the Year:

Must be a first time driver ever to auto racing with no previous oval track point or money race experience, with the exception of novelty races such as fun night, at the minimum age as required by track policy, who finishes highest in points over other rookies with a minimum of seven races.

EXCEPTION: First time driver will continue to qualify as a rookie the following season if he / she has not competed in a total of more than five races in any previous years." Driver is to list tracks at which he / she have raced, and past racing experience at the time of registration.